

Lesley Garrett to Headline Bedford Park Proms!

Bedford Park Proms takes place on Sunday 5th August in Bedford Park. The soloist this year will be none other than English soprano Lesley Garrett, this exquisite musician, broadcaster and media personality is the perfect fit for Bedford Park Proms.

Lesley Garrett is known for her cross-over repertoire that stretches from Mozart to Meat Loaf via West End Musicals; reaching places that other opera stars can only dream of. A fantastic leading lady for Bedford's 2018 Proms.

Joining Lesley will be tenor Jeff Stewart, who enjoys a busy world-wide career and his dramatic tenor voice is much in demand, both in opera and on the concert platform.

With over 120 performers on stage this will be a magnificent performance as the guest soloists, a 70 piece choir and the London Gala orchestra, conducted by Stephen Bell take to the stage for performances including Handel's Zadok The Priest, Bizet's Habanera, Verdi's Grand March (Aida) and Grieg's In the Hall of the Mountain King.

The musical celebration will culminate with rousing favourites for flag-waving and singing along, including Rule Britannia and Land of Hope & Glory, as thousands of lasers and fireworks light up the sky.

Come to Bedford Park for an evening of pomp and patriotism that the whole family can enjoy. You are welcome to bring picnics and your own drink to this event and there will also be a VIP option as well as general admission.

Once again, we will be running an early bird ticket offer for our loyal guests, be quick as this will run out on Tuesday 3rd April at midnight with prices going up on the 4th April.

Bedford Park Proms is a key part of Bedford's event calendar, welcoming thousands of concert fans with elaborate picnics – some even featuring formal dining tables with candelabra – chairs and blankets for an unforgettable evening.
